A POOL IN TROUBLE

LIFE OF THE CINCINNATI-ST. LOUIS ASSOCIATION IMPERILED.

The B. & O. Refuses to Enter It and the Big Four Kicks Out of It-The Union Pacific Causes More Worry.

Trouble has arisen with the Cincinnati and St. Louis Passenger Association before it has gotten fairly into operation. It was understood that with this association beginning operations the lines running between Cincinnati, Columbus and Cleveland were to establish a similar pool, with Mr. Stevenson as its commissioner, but at the last moment the Baltimore & Ohio declined to go into the arrangement. The Big Four people declared that so far as they were concerned the Cincinnati and St. Louis pool was also abandoned, which created quite a surprise, but the Big Four stands firm in the matter. A gentleman who is well informed as regards the Cincinnati lines says he looks upon this unexpected break as fortunate, as it will end not only in establishing, eventually, the Cincinnati and St. Louis pool but the Cincinnati, Co-lumbus and Cleveland pool and also an east-bound pool out of Cincinnati to the seaboard, including every line. He was con-fident this would be accomplished, and that Robert Stevenson would be made commissioner of the lines in the three pooling

To Be a Great Railway Convention. The gathering of railway employes May 27, 28 and 29 in New York city, it is expected, will be the largest convention of men of this class ever held. The object of the gathering is to discuss the labor question, unite in political action and to particularly urge the substitution of compulsory arbitration for strikes. C. E. Weisz, chairman of the executive committee, says that every State in the Union will be represented as well as Canada. Special trains have been engaged by different organiza-tions and hotel arrangements for 3,200 delegates and twice as many friends have been made. The headquarters of the officers of the convention will be at the Hotel Metropole. E. E. Clarke, of the Order of Kailway Conductors; P. M. Arthur, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; F. P. Sargent, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen; S. E. Wilkinson, of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and D. G. Ramsey, of the Order of Railway Telegraphers, will speak at the first public meeting. The spirit of this convention is juite opposed to any affiliation with the American Railway Union, Chairman Weisz says, and to one or two other Western organizations principally because of the leadership of such organizations.

Western Lines Strike a Snag. The meeting of the Western Passenger Association lines which was to be held at Chicago to-day is off for an indefinite period. The action of the Union Pacific in demanding that the association lines leave out of the question all of the east-bound business which the Union Pacific received through the same agencies as it derives its west-bound emigrant business, is the rock on which the split is likely to come. The Atchison has said that it will agree to the proposition of the Union Pacific if a like privilege is extended to it, and, pending a vote on the question, the association meeting was adjourned to enable the chairman to secure the votes of the absent lines. A meeting of the presidents of the Western roads will be held Wednesday to settle as far as possible the troubles in Western freight rates, and if the passenger troubles are not over by that time it is probable that they will take a hand in that also. There is in some quarters a strong feeling against allowing the Union Pacific demands, although no one line is likely to hold out against it. A strong majority will carry the question either way.

East-Bound Shipments. East-bound shipments from Chicago during the last week were 47,523 tons, against $2,856 for the preceding week, and 52,343 for the corresponding week of last year. The roads carried tonnage as follows: Michigan Central, 4,742; Wabash, 4,610; Fort Wayne, 4,653; Lake Shore, 6,535; Panhandle, 6,316; Baltimore & Ohio, 2,599; Grand Trunk, 4,-899; Nickel-plate, 5,178; Erie, 5,731; Big Four, 1,260. Shipments were made up of the following articles in tons: Flour, 1,454; grain and millstuffs, 18,832; provisions, lard, etc., 6,617; dressed beef, 11,309; butter, 1,607; hides, 1,000; lumber, 5,371; miscellaneous, 1,323. There are three systems of roads which have a larger mileage than the Pennsylvania. The Pennsylvania has 6,767 miles; the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, 7,220; the Chicago & Northwestern, 7,965, and the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe 9,141 miles. The Pennsylvania system has the advantage of being located in a much more thickly settled portion of the United States than the other systems named.

The older railway organizations, as they hold their annual meetings, are taking up the new organization, the American Railway Union, and acting very cautious-ly as to members leaving the old brother-hoods to become members of the new association. They argue that the Debs scheine is yet in its infancy and untried. They claim to fear affiliation with this general movement would tend to weaken the old organizations in their allegiance; in other words, that the all embracing organization would flourish at the expense of the seperate organizations composing it.

THE POPULIST CONVENTION.

Bruce's Grove for the Campers-Leaders from Other States.

The Populists are using every effort to have a large attendance at the State convention to be held in this city Thursday. It is expected that about five thousand Populists will be here on that day. A great number will come to this city by wagon. Those that live within a radius of fifty miles of the city will probably come in that manner, and large delegations are expected to use overland transportation from Howard, Carroll and White counties. Bruce's Park, at College avenue and Bruce street, has been secured as a camping ground for those who come in wagons. Ex-Commander of the G. A. R. Paul Vandervoort, of Omaha, will arrive in this city to-day. He will deliver an address before the convention on Thursday. Col. Jesse Harper, of Danville, Ill., will arrive today, and will also address the convention. H. E. Taubeneck, chairman of the national committee, will come from Washington, and will probably speak.

The convention will be held at Tomlinson Hall, and will be called to order promptly at 10 o'clock, with Joshua Strange, of Arcana, Grant county, chairman of the State central committee, presiding. Each township is entitled to one delegate, but from some of these there will be no delegate, and it is thought that not over three hundred delegates will assemble at the hall. thought, however, that the picnickers will fill the hall. No one has as yet at-tempted to state the ticket with any de-gree of surety, as the candidates have not though it is claimed that C. A. Power, of Terre Haute, has the "cinch" on the nom-ination for Secretary of State. The social-istic and labor union organizations will present a committee before the Populist committee with the view of getting their respective grievances in the party platform. This will include the single tax, a law regarding convict labor, a homestead law as a protection against usury, and a law affecting the salaries of county officers. Comlinson Hall has been secured for tomorrow night, and there will probably be speaking by the party leaders in the city at that time, among them Paul Vander-voort, Colonel Harper and National Chairman Taubeneck The State central committee and the chairmen of the county committees will meet at Room 35, English's Hotel, to-morrow afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Isanberg Held for Counterfelting. John Isanberg, the Moore's Hill man who was brought here Saturday charged with counterfeiting, was before United States Commissioner Van Buren yesterday afternoon for a hearing. He pleaded not guilty and stuck to his original story of having dug up the money found on him from a place at Greensburg, where he had seen a strang-er bury it. The evidence at the hearing developed no new circumstances, the stories told being identical with those already printed. The prisoner was held in $1,000 for grand jury action, and being unable to furnish bail was taken back to jail. He appears to be a stolid, hulking sort of a fellow. without much intelligence, and his face and head are badly swollen from the numerous shots fired into him by his captors. The officers say he is as obstinate as a mule. The silver dollars found on him are good counterfeits and, though rather light, are close enough to the genuine article to be dangerous. Isanberg's chances for a season at Michigan City are excellent.

BLAISHFIELD'S "THE BELLS."

New Picture by a Noted Artist at the

There was a picture hung at the art exhibit yesterday which has the place of honor on the north wall, opposite the door, The canvas is "The Bells," painted by E. H. Blaishfield, and the subject was taken

"Ring out, wild bells, to the wild sky, The flying clouds, the frosty night-Ring out the darkness of the land, Ring in the Christ that is to be." The scene is idealized. There is the old belfry, high in the tower, and angels are ringing the bells. There are three figures, painted from Italian models. They are radiantly beautiful. Through diaphanous draperies the figures are plainly discernible. As the angels are ringing the bells one bell of great size has just swung out. The picture is considered the greatest one Mr. Blaishfield has ever done. Mr. Blaishfield is the artist whose "Flaming Sword" attracted so much attention at the world's fair. Certainly the Art Association has been fortunate in securing anything so beautiful. There are more large canvases than ever before in the association's collection.

There is always so much said concerning the nude in art that the New York public has been having a series of exhibits of this style of art. The exhibit at the Propylaeum has three nude figures, and only one of them seems to be favorably received. This is No. 40, "La Cigale," by J. H. Fry. It is of a woman. The drawing and coloring are admirable. Many think it is inconsistent, on the ground that no real flesh-and-blood woman, as this one represents, would calm-ly sit down in a field, full of thistles, flowers, dead leaves and mosses, and their accompaniments of ants, mosquitoes and other insects. One visitor criticised the artist for painting a woman who has no clothes and yet has hairpins."

A second is of a boy, standing out of doors. The back is turned, and the artist, L. G. Caldwell, has sought to show the effect of the sunshine through the body. The tips of the fingers, held to the light, sometimes have this curious appearance, but to give the whole body the peculiar appearance, it would seem that the body should be very near the sun. An artist of much skill has dubbed the "A Sun Bath" the "Jelly Boy," because it has the effect of that substance. Common everyday people never seem to see things as artists do, and for this reason, perhaps, the grass is too yellow-green and the boy too thin. The third picture is called "Dawn." A diagram should have been sent with it. Why a colorless, nude woman, sitting on a stone in a country as bare as rocks and no verdure can make it, should be called dawn is one of the subjects which needs explanation. Stanley Middleton is the artist, and the picture is valued at $500 in the catalogue. The nude is not of the order beautiful, and the less of the kind such as is contained in the exhibit this year the better. One does not have to linger over these, and there are many others which are attractive enough to make a visitor desire to remain an hour or two several times a week during the time the pictures are

IDA SIMPSON'S DEATH.

Sad Story of a Johnson County Girl-Dr. Eskew's Statement.

About a week ago Ida Simpson, aged nineteen years, daughter of John Simpson, of Trafalgar, Johnson county, came to this city, presumably to visit her sister-in-law, Mrs. Anna Simpson, No. 222 South Illinois street. Several days after her arrival, in company with a friend named Agnes Haggard, she went to the office of Dr. H. T. Eskew, No. 25 Ohio street, to whom she told a pitiful story. Later she gave birth to a child. Soon after blood poisoning set in, and she died Sunday night at 7 o'clock above the saloon at No. 270 South Illinois street. The parents of the girl were informed, and they came to this city yesterday. It was their first knowledge of the sad condition and end of their daughter. and they were grief-stricken. It is claimed by several who knew the daughter that a stock trader residing near Trafalgar was responsible for the girl's downfall. Coroner Beck will investigate every phase of the

Dr. Eskew believes that the visit of the girl to his office was the outgrowth of a plan originated by his enemies to get his name connected with the affair. Brought Home a Strange Bottle. Ida M. Schulmeyer was yesterday granted a divorce in the Circuit Court. The plaintiff was the wife of Louis H. Schulmeyer, a chemist, in the employ of Daniel Stewart. The Schulmeyers, until they separated last December, lived at No. 30 Union street. The plaintiff charged cruel treatment and failure to provide, and upon these grounds the divorce was granted. Mrs. Schulmeyer, in her statement to the court, said that her husband had remained away from home at nights while she was ill and unable to care for herself. Instead of giving her his attention, he spent his extra time with a North-Illinois-street woman. She further charged that the defendant had brought home from the laboratory a bottle of strange-looking medicine, which took, and felt strangely afterward. Some time after their separation her mother went to the house to get the medicine, but could not find it. Schulmeyer made no defense, except to the amount of alimony demanded by the plaintiff.

THE LINCOLN LEAGUE EXCURSION.

A Special Train to Meeting of Republican Clubs in Denver.

The officers of the Indiana Lincoln League have just completed arrangements for attending the national convention of the League of Republican Clubs, to be held in Denver, Col., on June 26. The arrangements include a special train consisting of reclining chair cars, Pullman vestibule sleeping cars and a dining car, to run through from Indianapoils to Denver without change. The route selected for the trip is over the L. E. & W., C. & A. and the Union Pacific railroads. The special Ring, who used the mails wrongfully. The train will leave Bloomington at 8:50 p. m. over the Chicago & Alton, and will arrive at Kansas City at 7 o'clock on Sunday morning, where a stop of three hours and a half will be made. The train will leave Kansas City at 10:30 a. m. over the Union Pacific, arriving at Denver on Monday morning, June Secretary Mansfield, in speaking of the trip, said: "The route selected is as direct and time as quick as any, and we expect that the people of Indiana who contem-plate attending the convention, or making the trip at that time, to go on this special train. A rate of $24.75 for the round trip. good from all points in Indiana, has been secured. In addition to the trip to Denver several side trips have been arranged by the Republican clubs of Colorado for the benefit of delegates to the convention, which will include some of the most interesting points in the State. The season, the location where the convention is to be held. and the general interest manifested in polities at this time are conditions that will contribute to the success of the meeting and insure a large attendance. The convention comes at a time when many people will be taking their summer vacation, and will gladly avail themselves of an opportunity to visit the West, when a cheap rate can be secured. We expect to take a good crowd from Indiana, and the State will be well represented at the national meeting of Republican clubs."

His Cancer His Sympathy Racket. A man giving his name as Joe Bruce, and sometimes as Joe Brune, has swindled several unsuspecting persons out of small amounts in board bills. His more recent victims are the Planters' Hotel and Mrs. Rachel Goodin, of 76 Fort Wayne avenue. He claimed to them that he had come here to be treated for a cancer by Dr. C. I. Fletcher. After remaining at one boarding house for about a week, he would state that Dr. Fletcher was to perform an operation on his arm that day, and would leave the house, ostensibly to go to the Doctor, but nothing more would be seen of him. Dr. Fletcher says he has had no such patient, and denounces the man as a fraud.

A National Labor Congress. At the labor mass meeting held at Tomlinson Hall, Sunday, May 13, the following resolution was adopted:
